WALKING IN THE HOLY LAND: AN IGNATIAN APPROACH TO PILGRIMAGE

Presenter
Angela Gaffney

A Harvard resident and Holy Trinity parishioner since 2004, Angela, along with her husband, Joe, and 12 other Holy Trinity parishioners, took part in a multi-parish pilgrimage to the Holy Land, led by Father Dennis O'Brien, in April 2016. A communications professional by training, Angela is grateful for the opportunity to share her experience with pilgrimage as part of this year's Lenten program.

Camino de Santiago
(The Way of Saint James)

Presenter
Joe Gaffney

Joseph Gaffney, originally of Dorchester MA, moved to Harvard with his wife, Angela in 2004. Joe, an electrical engineer by training, spends much of his free time helping with the Lions, Camp Sunshine volunteers, or working on his old house across from St Theresa Church.

In May and June of 2017, Joe took five weeks to walk 500 miles on an ancient pilgrimage, the Camino de Santiago (The Way of Saint James). He will discuss, using a multitude of photos, his journey across the mountains and try to explain why so many come back changed by this experience.

Week 2: Tuesday,
February 27

The Passion of the Lord:
Sites in the Holy Land

Presenter
Father Michael Broderick

Father Broderick's presentation will include pictures of his recent trip to the Holy Land as they relate to the Passion as heard in the gospel.

Fr. Michael Broderick is the pastor of Our Lady of the Lake Parish in Leominster. After more than 30 years in parish ministry, Fr. Michael enjoys helping people engage their minds and hearts to experience scripture with real people in real time in salvation history.

Week 3: Tuesday,
March 6

PARISH PENANCE SERVICE

Father Terence Kilcoyne
Monks from St. Benedict Abbey

A communal penance service is a form of sacramental confession and mixes public prayer and individual confession of sins to a priest followed by absolution. Usually a communal penance service includes an opening hymn, readings, a short homily, and individual confessions. Father Kilcoyne will lead the communal part of the service, and visiting priests will join him for individual confessions.
